

HUHA, Inc. Donation Recipient Agreement

All items that are donated by Help Us, Help Animals [hereafter, HUHA, Inc.] are originally received as “donations” or purchased through donations. While HUHA, Inc. does its best to only distribute items that are considered in good condition and safe for use and/or consumption, we do not accept responsibility for any resulting injury, damages or illness caused by any items that have been donated by us.

Individuals or groups receiving donations from us do so because they have a need. By accepting donations from HUHA, Inc. you agree to use the items and not sell them for profit unless previously discussed with HUHA, Inc. (for specific fundraising purposes). If you have received an item from HUHA, Inc. that you or your organization no longer need (i.e. crate, special equipment), HUHA, Inc. would greatly appreciate the return of that item so it can be provided to another individual or group in need.

By signing below you acknowledge and agree with the above statements and understand that HUHA, Inc. has the right to limit or deny donation requests at any time, for any reason.
